

D. Translational Breast Cancer Equipment Fund

The BCSC provides important support for the purchase and maintenance of critical research equipment used for translational breast cancer research within the TBCRU. In 2018-2019, this fund covered repair of a microtome (used to prepare breast cancer tissue samples for analysis) and supported a service contract for a PCR machine (used to analyze gene expression changes in breast cancer cells, blood and tissue).