

Principles of Surgery (POS) Examination

All PGY2 residents are required to write the Principles of Surgery (POS) examination. The resident must bear the cost of the Royal College evaluation on his/her training in order to write this examination, as well as the cost of the examination. The resident is expected to report their status of pass/fail to the Program Director.